Total Required M.S. in Law Course Credits: 30

a = Pharmacy students will complete the PHAR 615 Applied Pharmacy Research and Service (APRS) project in place of the M.S. in Law Research project. The PHAR 615 APRS topic must have a law focus.

b = These two (2) courses (MHLP 530 and 550) have to be taken in sequence; the other M.S. in Law courses can be taken in any order (i.e., no pre-requisite).

The course schedule for pharmacy students who apply for this Mater's program during their P2 year will be tailored to complete as many M.S. in Law courses before the P4 year. The remaining M.S. in Law courses will be completed after graduating from the pharmacy program.
